

The council elections 2021

volume two: English district and unitary councils

Adam Gray

The 2021 council elections

Acknowledgements

Almost all the electoral information in this book is compiled from local authority websites, some (much) better than others. I am especially grateful to those councils which provided all information required - including turnout and electorate figures - on their websites without me needing to ask. I appreciate those electoral services officers who responded promptly to my requests for any missing data.

Note on this edition

Because of the Covid pandemic, the set of elections scheduled for May 2020 were postponed and two sets held this year. The two volumes of these results are divided into the set scheduled to happen this year (volume one) and the held-over set (this volume). Because a lot more councils were up for election in the set covered by this volume, all of the tables, analysis, commentary, by-election results and lists of candidates have been included in the first volume: all you will find here are the results.
